Definitions:

M & O - Money collected for the general operations (maintenance and operations) of the District. Revenue is used for staff, supplies, equipment, transportation, utilities, insurance, etc.

Permanent Supplemental - Voter-approved levies to support general operations, technology and facility maintenance. This tax is permanent and fixed in amount.

Tort - This tax is authorized by Idaho Code to collect revenue to pay the cost of general liability insurance coverage.

Bond - This tax is collected to pay for voter-approved capital construction bonds. The money pays principal and interest on outstanding bonds. The voters approved capital construction bonds in March 2006 and in March 2017. The total levy associated with these payments has been reduced according to Idaho Code 33-911(2)(a).
